

MRS. WEBB DUKE IS FOUND GUILTY

Millionaire Tobacco Man's Divorced Wife Flashed Worthless Checks.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IS MADE

Mrs. Duke Trembles When Word "Guilty" Is Uttered, and Maximum Penalty for Offense Is $1,000
Fine and Year in Jail.

CHICAGO, ILL., August 12.—Mrs. Alice L. Webb Duke, divorced wife of Brodie Duke, millionaire tobacco manufacturer, was today found guilty of defrauding the Great Northern Hotel by passing a worthless check. Motion for a new trial was made, and will be argued later. If not granted, sentence then will be passed by the court.

Garbed in black, Mrs. Duke was composed, and expressed confidence that the verdict would be in her favor. Her plea that the check, which was for $50, was written while she was under the influence of stimulants and narcotics taken to alleviate the pain of an attack of pleurisy, she believed would be sufficient to influence the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal.

At the word "guilty," Mrs. Duke flushed and trembled, but only momentarily. She recovered quickly, and was apparently perfectly composed, while her lawyer, Alfred E. Case, made his motion for a new trial.

The extreme penalty for the crime for which Mrs. Duke was found guilty is a fine of $2,000 and imprisonment in the county jail for one year.

Mrs. Duke was released under bond of $1,000.

Flaunt, Romance, Marriage.
NEW YORK, August 12.—Previous to her marriage to Brodie Duke, Mrs. Duke, who was Miss Alice Webb, was a partner in a brokerage firm in Chicago. The concern formed a plan for forming a branch concern in Texas, and $100,000 was required to finance the deal.

Miss Webb came to New York and succeeded in interesting Duke in the plan. Their acquaintance was shortly followed by their marriage. Shortly after the marriage Mr. Duke's brother, Benjamin N. Duke, began proceedings to have Brodie Duke declared irresponsible, and he was committed to a sanatorium in Flushing, L. I. Relations then took steps to have the marriage annulled.

In the meantime Mrs. Duke was active in her efforts to carry out the Texas plan, as a result of which warrants were issued at Nacogdoches, Texas, for the arrest of Mrs. Duke and Charles P. Taylor, who was charged with the charge of swindling President E. A. Blount, of the Commercial National Bank at Nacogdoches, out of $3,000.

It was alleged that Mrs. Duke, while in the Texas city, represented herself as being supported in her operations by large financial interests, and that she was the wife of a senator from the State of Texas. Later Brodie L. Duke brought suit for a divorce from Mrs. Duke, and a decree was granted to Mr. Duke.

ENGLAND VISITS AUSTRIA

Ruler of Dual Monarchy Welcomes English King at Depot.

ISCHL, AUSTRIA, August 12.—King Edward arrived here this morning from Kronberg, on a brief visit to Emperor Francis Joseph. The ruler of the dual monarchy welcomed the King of England at the railroad station with full military honors. This is the first time a sovereign visit of the Emperor has been greeted in this ceremonial manner.

The King and the Emperor drove from the railroad station to the Hotel Elisabeth, where thirty rooms had been reserved for the King and his suite. The streets to the hotel were lined with Austrian veterans and liberally decorated with flags.

Baron von Aehrenthal, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, and Sir Charles Hardinge, of the British foreign office, had a lengthy conference today. The King and the Emperor were the main topic of conversation, and the two statesmen agreed that the only possible attitude for the powers of Europe was to extend a sympathetic welcome to the King's action that might prove embarrassing to those trying to establish a more enlightened regime in the Ottoman Empire.

The King and the Emperor spent half an hour in conversation at the hotel. The Emperor then withdrew. Later Mr. MacDonald, British minister of foreign affairs, and the British foreign office, had a lengthy conference today. The King and the Emperor were the main topic of conversation, and the two statesmen agreed that the only possible attitude for the powers of Europe was to extend a sympathetic welcome to the King's action that might prove embarrassing to those trying to establish a more enlightened regime in the Ottoman Empire.

HEARING IN GREGORY CASE

Many Witnesses Examined As to His Treatment of Miss Irvin.

ROANOKE, VA., August 12.—The preliminary hearing in the case of Dr. W. S. Gregory, charged with attempted criminal assault on Miss Irvin, was begun in the Police Court today. It was decided to consider all the evidence offered at the Keadick-Coulter trial as in, with the privilege of examining witnesses if counsel saw fit.

The young woman was the first witness on the stand, and told about her experience in Dr. Gregory's office. She told that Mrs. O'Connell, who told about the condition of Miss Irvin when she arrived home.

The sensational evidence of the day was given by Miss Elsie Patterson, a waitress in a restaurant. She testified that she was present at Dr. Gregory's office about 11 o'clock, and the door between the reception and operating rooms was closed. She attempted to open it and could not. Dr. Gregory finally opened the door, and she saw Miss Irvin in the chair. The dentist made an appointment with her for the afternoon, and closed the door again. She went in the afternoon, and stated that he took her into a back room to examine her teeth, and told her to come back next week, and not to bring her sister with her.

W. N. Hobbs testified that Lee Martin, the negro who works in Dr. Gregory's office and is his best witness, told him that Dr. Gregory should be hanged.

Dr. Joseph Gale testified that with an experience of forty years, he had never known any one to have such a hallucination as was said to have come to Miss Irvin, and Dr. Buckner testified to the same effect.

In Dr. Gregory's evidence in the first trial he testified that he had never mistreated a lady who had come to him for a dental examination. He introduced evidence to show that he has done so. Judge Bryan announced that he would decide to-morrow whether or not to admit the evidence.

YOUNG SEARS DIES

One of Boston's Richest Men Succumbs
After Illness of Several Days.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., August 12.—J. Montgomery Sears, the young Boston millionaire who was hurt in an automobile accident shortly after midnight last night between Apponaug and Norwood, died at the Rhode Island hospital today. He did not recover from the injuries sustained in the accident until death came. The body was taken in charge by a local undertaker, pending advice from the young man's relatives, who are in Rhode Island.

Mr. Sears, who was a son of the late J. Montgomery Sears, was thirty-three years old. He was a member of the Massachusetts State Democratic Committee.

DRAWS LONG-BLADE KNIFE

Strike-Breaker Prepares to Defend Himself and Is Disarmed.

WINNEPEG, MAN., August 12.—The first of a series of cases involving union pickets occurred this evening when a picket approached a strike-breaker, alleged to be from Chicago, and asked him to leave the premises. An altercation followed, and the strike-breaker drew a knife with a five-inch blade. The picket at once summoned assistance from his comrades, and the strike-breaker was disarmed.

Frank Rounseaux, of Kansas City, president of the Carman's Union, the chief organization of the carmen, is expected to arrive in Winnipeg this evening contingent at Calgary has been increased by fifteen more men. They are employed principally in doing the necessary work.

PRINTERS CHANGE BY LAWS

Foremen in Union Shops Under Stricter Rules as to Discharges.

BOSTON, MASS., August 12.—The attitude of the newly formed Printers' League and its members toward labor, was laid before the International Typographical Union convention today by Charles Francis, of New York, president of the league. His remarks were of such approval that they were made part of the records of the convention.

PLUNGES INTO TROLLEY

Grand Trunk Passenger Struck Street
Car, Injuring Six Men.

DETROIT, MICH., August 12.—Six men were injured severely, but probably not fatally, this afternoon, when a fast-moving Grand Trunk passenger train struck a street car. The train, which was carrying a full complement of passengers, was crossing the street at the intersection of the Grand Trunk and the street. The street car was struck in the rear, and was thrown into the air. The passengers were hurled in every direction.

COURT ADJUDGES THAW BANKRUPT

Action Proves Distinct Surprise to All Persons Interested.

PREVIOUS PLANS ARE DISREGARDED

No Explanation of Change in Program Is Made, and Interest Now Centres in Having Creditors
Hold First Meeting in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Aug. 12.—Harry K. Thaw was formally adjudged a bankrupt at 11 o'clock today by Referee in Bankruptcy W. R. Blair. This action was a surprise to those interested in the case, as United States Commissioner W. T. Lindsey had set August 21st as the date for the adjudication. No explanation of the change of the plans and this morning's action has been made, but it is believed that the receiver, Roger O'Mara's visit to Thaw, Poughkeepsie yesterday may have had something to do with today's move. O'Mara was hurriedly summoned by Thaw on Monday.

No hearing was held previous to the entering of the formal order of adjudication, and Referee Blair has not announced the date of the first meeting of Thaw's creditors.

At the office of Referee W. R. Blair it was stated today that no movements have yet been made to contest the bankruptcy petition of Harry K. Thaw.

Usually, it is said, efforts to contest a bankruptcy proceeding are made before the adjudication. Under the law a meeting of Thaw's creditors must be held not sooner than ten days and within thirty days. Referee Blair will probably announce the date for the meeting of creditors to-morrow.

An effort will be made to bring Thaw to Pittsburgh for the first meeting of creditors, and unless District Attorney W. T. Jerome, of New York, is able to prevent his coming, it is believed Thaw will be in Pittsburgh within thirty days.

Thaw's petition in bankruptcy was filed August 7th, and Roger O'Mara was named as receiver. The petition sets forth that Thaw's liabilities are $153,149.43, and his assets $128,012.28.

In order to have the proceedings in this case set aside, it was said, it will be necessary to bring a petition for revocation of the order of adjudication. In the absence of a Federal judge from the district, this would be done before Referee in Bankruptcy Blair.

Every move in the Thaw proceedings has shown the determination of Thaw and his counsel to take his case out of the New York courts and force a hearing on the question of his mental condition in the courts at Pittsburgh. Local attorneys say that any of Thaw's creditors have the legal right to appeal to the United States court here to have Referee Blair's order of adjudication set aside on the ground that Thaw is insane.

This would carry the question of Thaw's sanity before the United States District Court, which would decide whether Thaw has a right to proceed as a bankrupt.

The question of sanity, which has been raised at the first meeting of the creditors, any creditor has the right to demand Thaw's appearance at this meeting, and when he is produced the question of his mental condition can be raised by an objection to his being allowed to testify, on the ground that he is insane, and that he is not a competent witness.

This would require a ruling from the United States District Court. By those who are following the case it is believed that Thaw will be able to get a ruling on the question of his sanity in the Pittsburgh courts as soon as he is brought within the jurisdiction of this State.

Among attorneys there appears to be a quite general belief that those in charge of Thaw's case will not be content to have the sanity case passed upon only by the Federal court, but will insist on the bankruptcy proceedings, because such decision, it is said, would have nothing more than a moral effect upon his case in New York. Those who take this view believe that soon after Thaw is brought here to face his creditors an inquest in Lunacy will be instituted in local county courts.

If the verdict in such inquest should be that Thaw is sane, New York would take this view, and Thaw would be able to get him back to that State, where the only ground for holding him a prisoner at present is that he is an insane person.

Thaw's status would then be the same as that of John Armstrong Chambers, of Virginia, who is held to be insane in New York State, but sane in Virginia, his native State, where he has been living since escaping from a New York asylum.

OFFICER KILLS NEGRO

Alexandria Deputy, in Fight for His Life, Has to Shoot.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., August 12.—After following for his life with a dangerous negro named George Quander, for whom he had a warrant for committing a murder, Deputy Sheriff William D.
